

My heart fills with cheer that we became such dear friends that we so laughed and shared all and so much but I'm so sorry we dared such a Beautiful Kiss and then offered our loving touch, though it was our embrace and gentle caress that brought us Life and Our Wondrous Love, it was also that which would send in the heartbreak and end of Our Friendship encharming, so transcendent, disarming, that only you and I in this world could know of ❀

When we both wept that last time in each other's arms it wasn't for any sorrow 'tween we two but for the joy we both brought to each other's lives yet not knowing what could be, what to do! ❀ and still I loved you so deeply, so wholly, completely and you vowed you so loved me, too ❀

I wish we could only go back into time and start up all over again, even in only the smallest way if you'd only say where, how and when because oh, how I miss you,

My Dearest Sweet Carol

and I only can kneel down and pray for forgiveness for whatever it was that I did that made you go on your way, to disappear from my life so, so suddenly, when our devotion was for ever- eternity ❀ I just don't know! I wish I knew what I said for which I'd atone and then make my amends so that maybe we could start all over again

*...and just be Friends ❀
